Parunthu

Subject : Drama

Starring : Mammooty,Lakshmi Rai

Directed by : M Padmakumar

Year : 2008

Purushottaman is a financier who lends money on interest. But he is a heartless kind of financier who is bothered only about his interest and business and never cares for relationships, humanity or other things sublime. His ways are almost like that of an eagle, thus earning him the nickname 'Parunthu'.

The only people close to Purushottaman are Mahendran and Kunjachchan. Mahendran, who had worked with financiers of all kinds, had finally lands up with Purushottaman and is now his right-hand man. But his problem is that he is always after money and whenever there is the prospect of getting some profit, he does a bit of financing himself. Kunjachchan, who earlier worked for Purushottaman's rivals, is now his most trusted associate.

Purushottaman has a rival in Azeez, with whom he is always in competition. It's rather ironical that Purushottaman and Azeez were close friends in their childhood. But now they are bitter rivals ready to tear each other apart. Purushottaman doesn't believe in emotions like love and compassion, and holds on to the doctrine that no one is to be trusted in this world. (Of course Purushottaman hadn't always wanted to be like this, but society never gave him a chance to reform himself). Anyway Purushottaman, at a stage in life, comes face-to-face with something tragic that changes the course of his life as a whole.

Subject : Drama

Starring : Sreenivasan, Padmapriya

Directed by : Vinu

Advocate Ravishankar is an idealist. It was with the intention of doing service to society that he studied law and enrolled in the bar council. It didn't take him much time after joining the legal profession to realize that the judiciary has become a hotbed of corruption and that all moral values have eroded. There is no justice for the poor and the downtrodden. Law has become subservient to money and power. Ravishankar becomes a crusader, and though he is alone in his fight, he is not about to give up. The opposition and the threats that he has to face on account of this and the repercussions all this has on his profession and his family life form the gist of the story of Yes Your Honour.
